6 BOTTLES MIXED CASE: DOMAINE PIERRE CROS FORGOTTEN GRAPES

Pierre Hourlier Wines

TASTING NOTES

A 6 bottles selection of wines of Languedoc producer Domaine Pierre Cros. These wines are made using old fashioned and forgotten grapes, Aramon, Piquepoul Noir, and Rivairenc, that are now very rare and hard to find in France. The result are elegant and refined wines, very aromatic and light.

They are a wonderful homage to Pierre Cros' grandmother and what she taught him from life: that you can make beautiful and delicious things with what you already have.

2 x Domaine Pierre Cros Languedoc - Vin de France 'L'Aramon de Mamie' Inspired by his Grandmother, and the love she put in her simple but delightful dishes, Pierre Cros makes wine with 'commoner' grape without fuss, but worthy to be on our table.

2 x Domaine Pierre Cros Languedoc - Vin de France 'Le Piquepoul Noir de Mamie' This old grape native from the Languedoc makes an elegant wine, that is very aromatic.

2 x Domaine Pierre Cros Languedoc - Vin de France 'Le Rivairenc de Mamie' The Rivairenc, also called Aspiran, is a very ancient grape from the Gallo-Roman era. Native from the Languedoc region, it is now very rare In France. It gives an aromatic wine, delicate and lively.
