BANDOL: DOMAINE DE LA GARENNE RED

Domaine de la Garenne

TASTING NOTES

Rarely in your exploration of the world of wine will you discover anything displaying the robust and complex flavours of the Mourvèdre grape as well as this example from Bandol. Ruby-intensive, with a scent from the South, olive, tobacco, pepper and cinnamon. Generous notes of blackcurrant, blackberry, thyme and liquorice. Ripe tannins on the finish.

DOMAINE DE LA GARENNE

Situated just to the north of Bandol, near the village of La Cadiere you will find the Domaine de la Garenne. The estate was originally owned by Maitre Braquety, an avid hunter of rabbits. His heirs however did not necessarily share his passion, purchased the neighbouring land and in 1941, planted vines of Mourvèdre, Grenache and Cinsault.

The vineyard is now run by Beatrix de Balincourt. Bandol is more well known for its Rose, but the red and white made by Beatrix are fabulous bottles with unique characters.
