VINIFICATION Limited yields. The Rangen Grand Cru vineyard is the southernmost Grand Cru of Alsace and the only one with volcanic soils. Its steep south-facing slopes, between 350 and 470 metres above sea level, provide excellent sun exposure and natural drainage. Guyot pruning. Sustainable farming practices are used to preserve the richness and uniqueness of this exceptional terroir. Gentle pressing of the grapes. Fermentation between 18 and 22°C. Ageing in traditional large old oak casks to preserve the purity of the fruit while expressing the distinctive volcanic terroir.

JOSEPH CATTIN

Situated in Voegtlinshoffen near Colmar, the Domaine Joseph Cattin has been making its own wines for nearly 300 years. This is a family-run estate, managed by brothers Jacques and Jean-Marie, with the help of Jacques' son (Jacques Jnr). The family's watchwords are elegance and authenticity, and they use traditional methods for winemaking alongside new equipment for best results.
