DOMAINE LALANDE

Domaine Lalande is located in Cite de Carcassonne, along the Canal Du Midi in Languedoc. Dating back to the 19th century, this vineyard originally was 2000 hectares, but got divided into lots after the revolution. Pierre Degroote and Bernard Montariol purchased this property in 1996.

The vineyard spans across approximately 215 hectares, with over 20 year old vines, with a great diversity in their soil. This vineyard is made up of a cave with a steel winery, which is used to store and age their wines, as well as allow the production of both red and white wines.
