DARTIGALONGUE VINTAGE BAS ARMAGNAC 1945

Pierre Hourlier Wines

TASTING NOTES

Since the 19th century, the DARTIGALONGUE family has been selling vintage Armagnacs. The vintage corresponds to the year of the harvest. Every vintage is unique and has its own personality.

Region

South West

Appellation

Bas Armagnac

Style

Armagnac

Producer

Dartigalongue

Vinification

The youngest vintages sold by DARTIGALONGUE have been ageing for at least 15 years in 400 litre oak barrels. After 40 to 50 years of ageing in wood, they are placed into glass bonbonnes (demi-johns) in order to preserve their taste quality and to stop the alcohol degrees decreasing.
